Metrocrest Services Announces Three New Board Members

Farmers Branch, Texas (November 8, 2018) – Metrocrest Services announces the appointment of three new members to its Boards of Directors, as well as the full slate of offices and board members for 2018-2019.

Joining the Board of Directors are Lucy Gore, Amy Marhoefer, and Jayson Sims.

“Metrocrest Services is so fortunate to have such a strong, dedicated board of directors which focuses on organizational strategy and long term sustainability. Our new board members are strong community leaders and will add great value to the board,” said Tracy Eubanks, CEO of Metrocrest Services.

Amy Marhoefer is a proud University of Nebraska Alumna with a degree in Broadcast Journalism and minors in Political Science, History, and English. Since joining Southwest Airlines in 2004, she has held positions with the Inflight and Marketing Departments, and currently serves as the Internal Customer Care Program Lead within the Executive Office. She feels blessed to be a part of the Southwest Airlines Family and loves the fact the Company was founded on the Golden Rule and Hospitality...empowering each Employee to help Internal and External Customers feel welcome, cared for, and appreciated! She and her husband Peter also enjoy the flight perks of being able to travel to see family, friends, and cheer on the University of Nebraska Cornhusker Sports Teams!

For the past seven years, Amy and her Cohearts in the Executive Office have enjoyed putting their Servants’ Hearts to work through quarterly volunteer efforts with Metrocrest Services. Whether it’s helping to stock the food pantry, assemble food bags for the Sack Summer Hunger Program, sort & pack school supplies for the Back to School Extravaganza, or helping to sort toys & gifts for the Holiday Store, they appreciate the mission of Metrocrest Services to “build stronger communities together.”

As an Edward Jones financial advisor, Lucy Gore’s objective is to help every client develop a strategy to reach their goals. In 2011, she joined Edward Jones as a financial advisor and opened her office in Farmers Branch. In 2012, she received the Ted Jones Prospecting Award for an outstanding first year.

Originally from Coahuila, Mexico, she has lived in Texas since 1995. Her husband, Matt and her two daughters currently live in Farmers Branch. She has been an active part of the community, even starting her own charity run in 2005 that collects toys for children at local hospitals. She has volunteered for a variety of programs at Metrocrest Services including the food pantry, holiday program, Sack Summer Hunger and through committees.

Jayson Sims started at Mobility Credit Union in June 2013 as part of their Management Program. Since then, he has held positions in the Banking and Lending office and is currently their SVP Operations. In this position, he encounters individuals facing life events on a daily basis and sees how hard this can be on a family. As a long-time volunteer through United Way Denton and Tarrant County, Jayson wanted to volunteer with an organization that partnered with Mobility Credit Union. Through the Mobility Credit Union and Metrocrest Services partnership, Jayson has volunteered and attended in a variety of programs and events.
