

Perishable Food Donation Policy

In order to insure the quality of food distributed through our pantry, it is now our policy to only receive perishable items from approved retail partners or community gardens. This policy is in line with the procedures in force at North Texas Food Bank and will help us in our efforts to follow the required safe food handling guidelines.

Perishable foods include any item that requires refrigeration such as: meat, milk, eggs, and produce.